

Hamburger Stand - Estimated Daily Demand Model

Operating Hours: 11:00 AM – 8:00 PM

Baseline planning assumption: 200 transactions per day.

Hourly Demand Forecast

11 AM–12 PM: 24 transactions (12%)
12 PM–1 PM: 40 transactions (20%)
1 PM–2 PM: 28 transactions (14%)
2 PM–3 PM: 14 transactions (7%)
3 PM–4 PM: 12 transactions (6%)
4 PM–5 PM: 16 transactions (8%)
5 PM–6 PM: 30 transactions (15%)
6 PM–7 PM: 24 transactions (12%)
7 PM–8 PM: 12 transactions (6%)
Total: 200 transactions

Projected Product Mix

Classic Cheeseburger: 60 units
Double Cheeseburger: 40 units
Bacon Cheeseburger: 30 units
Signature Stand Burger: 20 units
Crispy Chicken Sandwich: 20 units
Spicy Chicken Sandwich: 10 units
Chicken Nugget Orders: 20

Daily Inventory Requirements

Beef Patties: 231
Ground Beef: Approximately 60 lbs
Chicken Filets: 33
Chicken Nuggets: 132
Burger & Chicken Buns: 200
Cheese Slices: 231
Bacon Strips: 66
Lettuce: 8–10 heads
Tomatoes: 20–25
Frozen Fries: Approximately 60 lbs
Onion Rings: Approximately 240 rings

Peak Production Planning

Lunch Peak (12 PM–1 PM): 40 transactions per hour.
Dinner Peak (5 PM–6 PM): 30 transactions per hour.
Kitchen should be staffed and stocked to support these peak periods.

Recommended Staffing

Slow Periods: 1 cashier, 1 cook, 1 floater.
Lunch Peak: 1 cashier, 1 expeditor, 2 cooks, 1 assembler.
Dinner Peak: 1 cashier, 1 expeditor, 2 cooks, 1 assembler.
Management: 1 manager on duty.

Revenue Projection

Assuming an average ticket of $12:
Daily Sales: approximately $2,400
Annual Sales (365 days): approximately $876,000